

The Oakland Tribune

Terrifying

CHAO SOI CHEONG — Associated Press

THE SOUTH TOWER of the World Trade Center erupts in flames Tuesday as smoke billows from its twin after terrorists crashed airliners into the New York landmarks, which later collapsed.

Thousands feared dead

□□□

Four hijacked airliners crashed

□□□

World Trade Center destroyed

□□□

Pentagon takes direct hit

□□□

Nation shocked by tragedy

MATT MOYER — Associated Press

AN EMERGENCY WORKER (center) is assisted from the scene after terrorists crashed two jets into the World Trade Center.

More than 30 pages of special coverage:

How the day of terror unfolded across the nation. NEWS-11

Intelligence agencies defend failure to foresee attack. NEWS-13

Authorities start tracking down suspects. NEWS-15

President Bush faces his biggest crisis. NEWS-17

Bay Area residents react to the attacks. NEWS-19

50 CENTS
™ 2001 ANG
Newspapers

